-  No outside food or beverages are allowed on board.

1. New York Cruise Lines, Inc. and its subsidiaries (collectively "NYCL") are not liable for any claim for loss of life or injury unless written notice is given within 6 months from the day of the loss of life or injury and no suit for any cause may be maintained against NYCL unless it is commenced within 1 year after the voyage. All suits must be brought in Federal Court in New York, in admiralty. 2. The vessel may bounce in the wakes of other vessels or in the currents. This is a voluntary activity and guests accept full responsibility, for themselves and any minor children for whom they are responsible for any bodily injury, accident, loss of personal property and death which occurs in connection with this activity. 3. All ticket sales are final. 4. No outside food or beverages are allowed aboard any of our vessels. 5. Guests agree to submit to security checks during the check-in process. 6. NYCL reserves the right to refuse admission or remove anyone acting in a dangerous, illegal, or disruptive manner. 7. NYCL is not liable for lost or stolen items. 8. Guests grant NYCL permission to use their image for broadcast form or promotion in any media without payment or approval. 9. Tickets are not to be resold without NYCL's prior express written permission, and resold tickets will not be honored. 10. Tickets may not be duplicated, as only the first scan of any ticket will be honored. 11. Guests requiring assistance should contact us at: accessibility@nycl.com 12.
